Expensive Courtship. Recently a young Frenchman of good family, but very poor, fell in love with a banker's daughter, and, obtaining a letter of introduction to her father, called on him. He found him at home, and a pleasant conversation followed. As he talked, however, the young man fumbled with a gold coin, the only money he possessed, and when he rose to take leave he removed it from his waistcost pocket and put it, without thinking, into his trousers pocket. As he was strolling home he looked for the coin, but, alas, it was not to be found, for there was a small hole in his trousers pocket, and as soon as he had put it in it fell noiselessly on the velvet carpet in the banker's drawing

As he sorely needed the money the young man, though much against his will, resolved to go back and inquire about it.

"Yes," said the banker as he entered; "I found a gold coin on the carpet as soon as you left the room, and I was not surprised, for I lost a similar coin in that very place two days ago. This, therefore, is my money, and we will now look for yours."

The banker smiled as he spoke, but the penniless young man turned his back on him and abruptly left the

The Gleaners.

The old custom of gleaning in the harvest fields, which recalls the Bib-lical story of Ruth and Naomi, is not obsolete in England, and in Hertfordshire, Bedfordshire and the neighboring countles, as soon as the wheat is gathered in the late days of August, there may be seen in the newly cleared fields numbers of women and children diligently picking up one by one the scattered ears and forming them into neat little sheaves which they carry in their hands until large enough to be bound up. When the daylight fails, all the booty is bound up in cloths and carried home on the heads of the gleaners. At home they thrash it out by hand and sell the grain or use it for their chickens. The gathering of a half peck is usually a full day's work for a child, and often a woman spends a whole day in gathering very little more. Gleaning, however, is looked upon somewhat in the light of a picnic, The mother and children leave home in the morning, take with them food for the day and stay out in the fields until

Reforms and Human Nature.

Occasionally events crystallize so that the reformer can come into power through an extraordinary revulsion of the people against their masters, but this revulsion has to be produced by events rather than words, says the Political Science Quarterly. A few men of the dominant party sent to prison will do more to cause a revul-sion of feeling than all the arguments or newspaper exposes in the world. The reformer may then get his innings. and if he makes some effort to under-stand the human nature that pervades the greatest part of the city population he may remain longer than a brief sea-son, but the odds are against it for a long time still to come, for the reformer is as yet constitutionally unable to follow up the detail necessary for political popularity and success. He relies on ideas, not on men. He does not realize that the majority of citizens still live in a world of personalities, not of prinpurlifies, cleanses, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. This new discovery digests all classes of food and assists the stomach and digestive organs in assimilating and transforming it into the kind of nourishment that is taken up by the blood and fed to the tissues throughout the various organs of the body. Kodol cures indigestion and dyspepsia, thus removing the cause of all stomach troubles. Kodol gives such strength to the body that it is invaluable in all wasting diseases.

"I wish to thank you for what Kodol has done for me," writes Clifton Girton, Collett, Ind,
"It cured me of dyspepsia after everything else had failed. When I tried Kodol it helped me right away. I cheerfully recommend it."

We Have Manufactured

Cigars since 1884 but at no time have we ever made a cigar to equal the "Captain Billy," which is made for men of taste, and equal to many fee eigars on the market. The Captain Billy is made of the finest imported and domestic tobacco grown, being strietly hand made by experienced union workmen. The stock is old and well seasoned, being kept in our warehouse until well aged before it is manufactured into cigars. The Captain Billy is made in two shapes—Perfecto and No. 1—so you can take your choice. When the Captain Billy eigars are manufactured they are packed in Spanish codar boxes and then put in an airtight room so they will gradually dry without losing their Havana aroma, before being offered to the trade. If you anticipate taking a trip to the seashers it would be well for Cigars since 1884 but at n pate taking a trip to the sea-shore it would be well for you to order the Captain Billy to carry with you as you can find no eigar to equal
